INCENTIVES A DEFINITION

DISINCENTIVES A DEFINITION

OBJECTIVES OF THE CRHNET

“Create a Canadian annual forum for dialogue focusing on disaster risk reduction and facilitate policy formulation and adoption of best practices in Canada”.

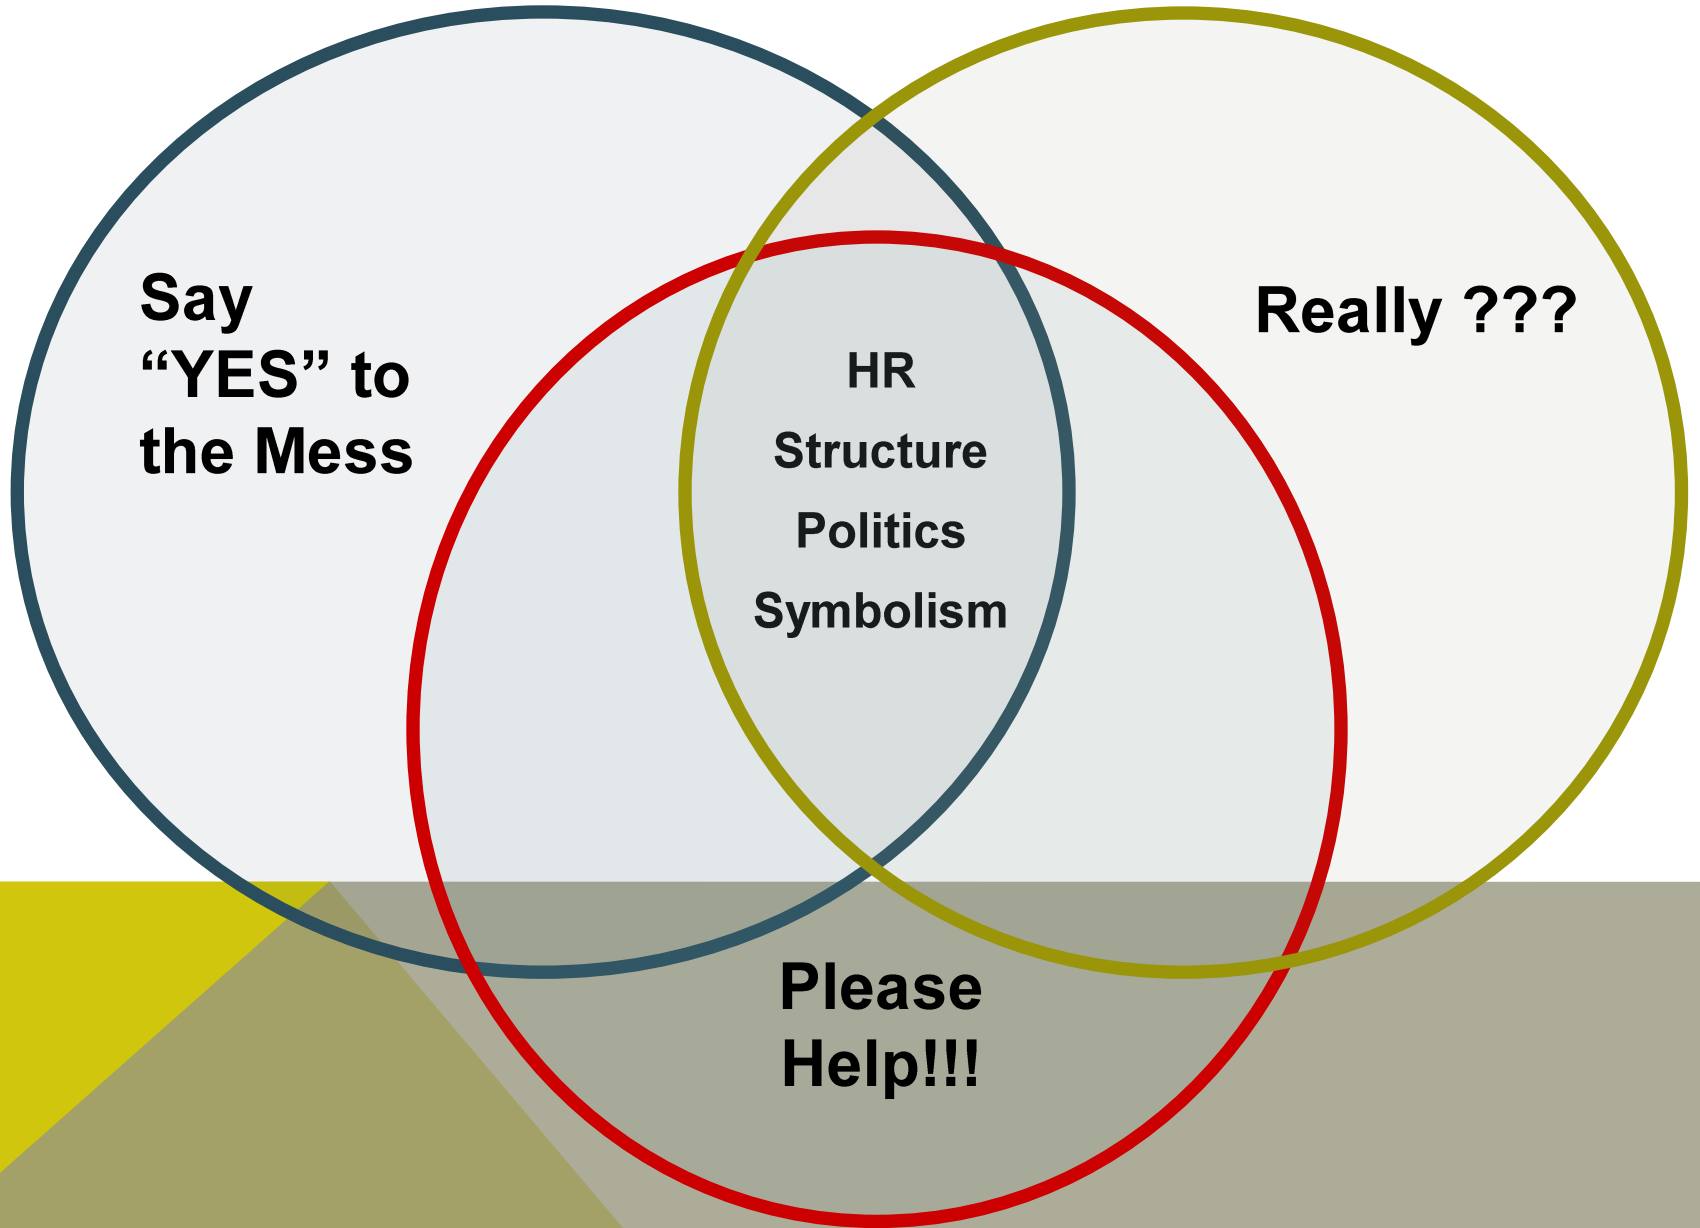

POLICIES AND PRACTICES

Public Policies Realities

- Shifting political terrain
- Greater accountability
- Private sector implication
- Transparency
- Policy vs. Procedure.

POSSIBLE SCENARIOS

MESSY COPS

- Over 2000 P.O. focus on information gathering and intelligence
 - Criminal Intelligence Service of Canada
 - Chief of Police protected areas of responsibility
 - Council on Public Safety supported by major chiefs
 - Driven by Criminal Operations Officers.

REALLY, PISTOLS ?

- CBSA Creation and Structure
- Presented potential options
- Consequences on the Agency
- The politics internally and externally.

SOUTH WEST PROJECT

- PSRC encouraged reflection
 - Risk Assessment
 - Limited resources
 - Historical considerations
 - Web Site.

INCENTIVES IN CONTEXT

“ If I thought this would have benefitted anybody but me I wouldn't have done it”

ADM (whom shall remain nameless)

WIIFM

- Recognition/Advancement
- Clarity (Get the grey right out...)
- Political advancement
- Who butters your bread
- Financial gain
- Band aid solution.

DISINCENTIVES

- Lack of motivation to create a policy
- Procedures that are masqueraded as policy
- “Too many cooks spoil the broth”
- Policy is too vague
- People cannot do what they want if policy gets in the way.

THANK YOU
MERCI
