

Disaster and Emergency Management in Canada

Dave Etkin and Brenda L. Murphy (editors)

Published by: CRHNET, June 2011

Table of Contents

1. Introduction, by Brenda Murphy and David Etkin
2. The History of Emergency Management in Canada (seeking authors)
3. The Canadian Response to International Disasters (seeking authors)
4. Canadian Legislation & Policy (seeking authors)
 - a. Municipal Emergency Management, by Daniel Henstra
 - b. Federal (seeking authors)
 - c. Provincial (seeking authors)
 - d. Private Sector Related (seeking authors)
5. The Canadian Emergency Management 'framework' (a defacto presence)
 - a. The Evolving Roles of Emergency Managers, by Marg Verbeek
 - b. The Military and Disaster Management: A Canadian Perspective on the Issue, by David Etkin, Kenneth McBey and Cliff Trollope
6. The Hazardousness of Canada (seeking authors)
7. Vulnerability
 - a. Understanding Vulnerability to Understand Disasters, by Ilan Kelman
8. The Disaster Management Cycle (seeking authors)
 - a. Mitigation (seeking authors)
 - (1) School Seismic Safety in British Columbia: A Grassroots Success, by Tracy Monk
 - b. Preparedness (seeking authors)
 - c. Response
 - (1) Mass Casualty Management and Medical Surge, by Wayne Dauphinee

- (2) Forensics if Necessary: Similarities and Changes in Canadian Mass Death Incidents, by Joseph Scanlon and Chris Stoney, with Kirsten Kramar, Tanya Peckmann, Ian Brown, Cynthia Lynn Cormier, Terry McMahon and Coen van Haastert
 - d. Recovery
 - (1) Post-Disaster Recovery and Vulnerability, by Erin Joachim
 - (2) Household Economic Disaster Recovery: Canadian Approaches, by Brenda Murphy
 - e. Business Continuity (seeking authors)
- 9. Disaster Case Studies (seeking authors)
 - a. The Local and Global Outbreak Response to Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome (SARS) in Toronto, by S. Harris Ali
- 10. Special Topics (seeking authors)